

Indian Ministry of Skill Development delegation study tour to UK

People 1st
International

In March 2020, a delegation led by the India Ministry of Skill Development & Entrepreneurship took part in a UK Study Tour / Trade Mission. The visit was organised by the UK Foreign Commonwealth & Development Office (formerly DfID), with support from the UK Skills Federation, which put together and led the UK programme.

Purpose of the visit

The purpose of Study Tour was to enable the Indian delegation to strengthen their understanding of the UK skills system and, in particular, the organisations taking part in the Study Tour, including:

- The role of each organisation in the UK Skills eco-system
- How they are regulated and monitored
- Their funding sources or business models
- Their top achievements, as well as challenges and lessons learnt in their journey
- Their experience working with India and the opportunities for potential partnerships with the Indian Skills eco-system

Indian delegation

The delegation included the following Indian organisations / government departments:

- Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship
- Directorate General of Training
- Niti Ayog, a leading skills policy think tank
- National Skill Training Institute
- National Instructional Media Institute
- Maharashtra State Skill Development Society
- Department of Economic Affairs

Outcomes of the visit

The visit enabled the Indian delegates to enhance their understanding of the UK skills system and to learn from the best practice applied by the organisations, as specialists in their fields. The UK participants were able to strengthen the relationships with Indian stakeholders and learn about opportunities for collaboration between the UK and India in the field of skills development. The longer term aim for all parties is to continue to build on the links between the two countries to share knowledge and to forge partnerships that will support opportunities for communities and businesses on both sides.

Client Testimonials

"The study tour for India government officials last week went really well. All members have been appreciative of the smooth organization. Many thanks for organizing it well."

- Sanjay Valksar, Senior Programme Manager, Department for International Development (now Foreign Commonwealth & Development Office) India, British High Commission, Delhi

"It was indeed interesting to hear about the work of the UK skills sector. The Government of India is very keen to learn from UK's experience. We had a great constructive conversation on lessons learnt, which we will capture for the future."
